DISCIPLINARY CASES

2001-0370. Cleveland Bar Assn. v. Young.

On July 18, 2001, this court permanently disbarred respondent, Leonard Young. On November 27, 2006, relator, Cleveland Bar Association, filed a motion for order to appear and show cause, requesting that the court issue an order directing respondent to appear and show cause why he should not be found in contempt for his failure to comply with the July 18, 2001 order.

On January 18, 2007, this court granted the motion and ordered respondent to appear in person before the court on Wednesday, February 28, 2007. Respondent did not appear. Upon consideration thereof,

It is ordered by this court that relator's motion is granted and that respondent is found in contempt.

It is further ordered that within ten days of the date of this order, respondent shall: 1) return to Carolyn Bridges-Graves all documents she provided to respondent, 2) return the retainer of $300 paid by Ms. Bridges-Graves, and 3) reimburse the Clients' Security Fund in the amount of $27,892.61, plus interest, for awards made against him. It is further ordered that respondent shall file proof of such compliance within ten days of the date of this order. If respondent fails to file such proof, the court will issue a warrant for respondent's arrest, and respondent shall serve 30 days in jail.
